Ford Village and Castle Dene Walk

Walking Route No. 4

Circular route: 1.1 miles (1.7 km)

Grade: Easy loop walk with sloping paths, unsuitable for buggies. Can be wet in places.

Start: TD15 2QG

Follow the directions below in conjunction with the map inside and the colour-coded waymarkers along the route.

- A Start at Lady Waterford Hall (please park in the designated parking spaces opposite Ford Village Shop). Walk towards Lady Waterford Hall and turn left towards the Waterford Memorial. Continue straight ahead, walking along the conifer lined path towards Ford Castle.
- B Turn left at the end of the path, walking towards the church, then bear right walking with Ford Castle on your right and St Michael & All Angels Church on your left. In the field on the left are the remains of the Parson's Tower a medieval pele (pronounced "peel") that was once the home of the local clergyman (0.3m/0.48km).
- C Continue downhill and cross over the bridge. After the bridge the track narrows, keep walking and look for a track to the right signposted Woodland Walk to Ford village (0.4m/0.6km).
- D Follow the track up the side of Grove Dene. This is a deep and narrow wooded valley and the path undulates up and down.
